A few years ago, when the GMAT stopped giving test-takers the typical paper and pencil, Manhattan GMAT did a clever thing. They produced a near-replica of the test-center replacement: a several-page laminated notebook and marker. The booklet allows you to make your preparation that much more realistic—generally a good thing.

Practice with a Test Simulation Booklet + Wet Erase Marker: Typically overlooked (I did my first time); don't let the exam be the first time you are using the test booklet and marker. Start practicing with this as early as possible (e.g. not just for practice exams, but even while doing practice problems).
