A message for regular readers of this blog: unless something big breaks later today, this will be my last day blogging AT THIS SITE. The Times is consolidating the process, so future blog-like entries will show up at my regular columnist page. This should broaden the audience, a bit, maybe, and certainly make it easier for the Times to feature relevant posts.

I found the The Conscience of a Liberal has broadened my attentiveness to inequality in the U.S. It was especially enlightening on the 2008 crisis and how inequality was increased as the results of the housing collapse. I don't agree with all points in the book, as blaming the other side is shallow.
