The exact credit score you need to buy a house really varies, depending on factors like where you plan to buy and the terms of your mortgage. But, in general, you'll want a score of at least 600, preferably closer to 680. To get the best rates, you need a 760 or higher. To make sure you're serious about buying, and qualified to do so, many agents will ask you to bring a pre-qualification ...
